BIOLOGY
NEW STUDENT CHECKLIST

Biological Sciences, Ecology & Evolutionary Biology, Molecular & Cell Biology, Physiology & Neurobiology, Structural Biology & Biophysics

BEFORE CLASSES START

• For concerns after orientation: contact Academic Services Center at 860-486-2822
• Check your university email regularly as email is the primary means of communication between you and your advisor.
• Send your AP scores/transcripts to the Admissions office to receive college credit.
• Swap, don’t drop! If you accidently drop a class, you may not be able to get back in!
• Take the Math Placement Assessment if you haven’t already done so.
• For pre-med information, visit the Pre-Med website: http://premed.uconn.edu/
• Like “UConn Biology Undergrads” on Facebook to get important updates.

WHEN FALL SEMESTER STARTS

- For urgent scheduling concerns, make an appointment with your advisor, or come during our walk-in hours [10 – 12 and 2 – 4, daily].

- You have until September 14th to add/drop a course and can do so via the Student Administration System. After the 14th you will receive a grade of “W” for a dropped course and will need a form, signed by your advisor.

- Accept or reject AP and/or ECE credits. Check your university email for details.

- Attend one Biology Advising Workshop. All Biology freshmen are required to attend an advising workshop to prepare for registration and to become familiar with graduation requirements.
